BUSINESS MEETING

Finance

The General Fund and the Enterprise Fund are on target. We are still within the budget. The revenues and expenditures are in line with what we expected.

Public Safety

Police report was handed out and read.

Transportation

Jason Smith presented to the board of commissioners an invoice that came from Rick Huggins. This invoice dated 12-19-12 came to Bob Harvey in reference to an invoice for mowing streets Concord Street (including maintenance of decorative corners) and East side of 200 block of Pleasant Ave, Charlotte Street (South side). Jason Smith stated that Bob Harvey sent Rick Huggins a letter back stating that the town can't pay for services not contracted for or committed to by an authorized representative of the Town. If he had any further need to discuss this matter, to please contact the Board of Commissioners during one of our regularly scheduled meeting. Jason Smith then stated that Rick Huggins brought the invoice back into town hall and stated that this was Mr. Harvey job to present this to the board. He said "don't send this back to me, I have copies". Under common law he is under contract because he's been providing this service for so long, he says. Jason Smith then stated we received a second letter dated 01-24-13 from Rick Huggins asking for payment for mowing of City Street Right of Ways. Jason Smith then stated that Mr. Bob Harvey sent Rick Huggins a second letter stating that I refer you to the Board of Commissioners and should you disagree with my determination rejecting your request for payment, I will put this matter on the agenda as you requested and Commissioner Jason Smith will present to the board your request for payment. Bob Harvey also stated on the letter inviting Rick Huggins to board meeting February 7, 2013 at 7:00 p.m. in the town hall. Jason Smith then stated this letter was returned to Town of Stanfield- being refused. Mr. Bob Harvey did see Rick Huggins later on and did tell Rick Huggins what the letter stated.

At this time there was discussed about mowing right-of-ways. Mr. Bob Harvey stated we don't mow right-of-ways- Rick Huggins stated I beg your pardon. Then Kevin Barbee stated at one time we had an agreement with the state to mow state roads, and now we don't. Kevin Barbee stated that if we did not ask for these services we will not pay. The board looked at pictures of where Rick Huggins was referring to.

Jerry Williams made a motion to refuse to pay for the invoice that Rick Huggins sent to the Town of Stanfield, all were in favor, motion carried.
